SLA Members To Receive Unique Benefits on TeamWork Online's Recruiting Network

Reston, VA. – February 3, 2016 – The Sports Lawyers Association (@SportsLawyers) and TeamWork Online (@TeamWorkOnline) announced a partnership today in which SLA members will receive unique benefits from the service that is the most popular and successful recruiting network in the sports industry. This partnership comes just a few months shy of TeamWork Online's 100,000th online hire, which the company will celebrate later this year.

As part of the new partnership, all Sports Lawyers Association members interested in sports positions on the TeamWork Online recruiting system will be able to create a profile at TeamWorkOnline.com at no charge. SLA members will also receive free access to TeamWork Online's career newsletter.

Additional benefits TeamWork Online will offer SLA members as part of this partnership include:

- Weekly (52 weeks) coaching tips from TeamWork Online President Buffy Filippell, employers and candidates who have been hired using TeamWork Online
- Weekly email with the latest sports law job listings
- Inside email connections to sports industry executives
- Links to helpful videos that will allow SLA members to maximize their TeamWork Online account
- SLA members will receive a discount for the full MVP Access benefits, which include data on applicants who have applied for specific jobs

Sports Lawyers Association Board members and TeamWork Online executives will also appear at each other's conferences and networking events as featured guests and valuable resources.
